

Look out for new signs

Costessey Junior School has been busy designing posters to help us crack down on dog fouling. Children across the school have participated and the overall winning design will be reproduced as signs to remind dog owners to 'bag it & bin it.'

And the winners are...

- Year 2 Freddie Jay
- Year 3 Ellie Russen
- Year 4 Molly Watson
- Year 5 Jasmine Kilbourn
- Year 6 Evie Li-Graham

Costessey Community Youth Awards will be announced soon, nominations for South Norfolk Community Awards close on 8 January. Go to www-south-norfolk.gov.uk

The field off Farmland Road, where a planning application for 83 homes has been resubmitted. The Town Council recommends refusal for many reasons.

Outside the newly agreed settlement development boundary;
Impact on the landscape & wildlife;
Preservation of the strategic gap between Old & New Costessey;
Surface Water Flooding;
Infrastructure, Schools, Medical Centres and much more...

Our full response can be found on our website and has been submitted to South Norfolk Council who are the Planning Authority and will determine the application early in the new year.

Blocked drain or insufficient drainage?

Spot the difference. The one on the left was repaired by the County Council, the other was the responsibility of the home owner as it starts on their drive.

Conservation volunteers wanted

Work has begun on clearing brambles to re-expose the beautiful bluebell glades in East Hills Wood, with volunteers from the Costessey area joining forces with Norwich Fringe Project, South Norfolk Council & Friends of the Tud Valley. If you would be keen to join contact volunteer Tree Warden, Pauline Williamson on 01603 742491.
